

Colbie Caillat - Breakthrough

Tom: D

(intro) D Bm Gbm G A

D G D A Em
Why is it so hard, it was so long ago
D G D A Em
I don't know where to start or what to say to you

Bm G A D A Bm
I've been all alone needing you by my side
G A
But it's not too late, maybe we just needed time

D Bm Gbm G A
Can we try to let it go, if we don't than we'll never know
D Bm Gbm G A D Bm
Gbm G A
I try to break through but you know that it's up to you

D G D A Em
We say that time is meant to heal but it still hurts inside
D G D A Em
I wish that none of this was real 'cause we're so far behind

Bm G A D A Bm
You've been all alone needing me by your side
G A
But it's not too late, maybe we just needed time

D Bm Gbm G A

Can we try to let it go, if we don't than we'll never know
D Bm Gbm G A
I try to break through but you know that it's up to you

D Bm Gbm G A
And I know that our love can grow but this damn river needs to flow
D Bm Gbm G A
I try to break through but you know that it's up to you

Em Bm G
It's time to make a stand, maybe it won't last
A
But we should take the chance, oh

D Bm Gbm G A
Can we try to let it go, if we don't than we'll never know
D Bm Gbm G A D Bm
I try to break through but you know that it's up to you

D Bm Gbm G A
And I know that our love can grow but this damn river needs to flow
D Bm Gbm G A
I try to break through but you know that it's up to you

D Bm Gbm G A
I will try to break through but you know that it's up to you
D Bm Gbm G A
I will try to break through but you know that it's up to you
D Bm Gbm G A D
I will try to break through but you know that it's up to you
