

Conan Gray - Door

tom:

Bbm (forma dos acordes no tom de Gm )

Capostrate na 3ª casa

I found myself today taking your stop on the train
 One word from you, baby, I'll go away
 I'll sing the same songs for you, songs about you on this stage
 One kiss from you, baby, I'll turn the page

I just need to close this door
 Wipe the wine that we spilled off the floor
 I just need to close this door
 Who do I keep it open for?

Only you, my love
 Only you, my love

I'm savoring cigarette butts that you left on the porch
 A rosary bead of the headphones we shared
 On the night that we slept on the floor
 I've tried to find somebody else, but it just makes me lonelier (ah)
 You were never even good to me
 Falling for the person you could be

But he doesn't exist

So I just need to close this door
 Wipe the wine that we spilled off the floor
 I just need to close this door
 Who do I keep it open for?

Only you, my love
 Only you, my love

You're calling a cab from the sheets of my bed
 When I opened my eyes, you were halfway to London
 I'm calling your phone and you're not picking up
 And I still don't know how, when you left me

You just went and closed this door
 Wiped the wine that we spilled off the floor
 I just need to close this door
 Who do I keep it open for?

Only you, my love
 Only you, my love
 Only you, my love
 Only you, my love
