

Conan Gray - Generation Why

Tom: D

Why why why why
Why why why why
Why why why why

A I was off A

Keying cars parked on radium lawns D

By suburban moms E

A I called a friend A
Let's meet at ten

D Go wherever we want

E 'Cause no one cares that we're gone

A This town don't got much to do

A You and I haven't got much to lose

D Do you wanna rock in your room like we always do? E

A Talk about how fast we grew

A And all the big dreams that we won't pursue

D Then get in your car and laugh 'til we both turn blue E

A 'Cause we are the helpless, selfish, one of a kind

A Millennium kids, that all wanna die

D Walking in the street with no light inside our eyes E

A We are the worthless, cursed with too much time

A We get into trouble and lose our minds

D Something that I've heard a million times in my life E

E Generation Why

A Parents think, we're fast asleep

D But as soon as we're home, we're sneaking out the window E

A 'Cause at this rate of earth decay

D Our world's ending at noon

E

Can we all just move to the moon?

A This town don't got much to do

A And you and I haven't got much to lose

D Do you wanna leave everyone in this place for good? E

A 'Cause we are the helpless, selfish, one of a kind

A Millennium kids, that all wanna die

D Walking in the street with no light inside our eyes E

A We are the worthless, cursed with too much time

A We get into trouble and lose our minds

D Something that I've heard a million times in my life E

E Generation Why

A Why why why why why why why why why

D We're livin' night to night

A Why why why why why why why why why Gbm

E Since we're bound to die, oh

A Why why why why why why why why why

D Oh, what's the use in trying?

Why why why why why why why why why E

And it's exactly why

'Cause we are the helpless, selfish, one of a kind

Millennium kids, that all wanna die

A Walking in the street with no light inside our eyes

We are the worthless, cursed with too much time

A We get into trouble and lose our minds

D Something that I've heard a million times in my life E

E Generation why

A Why why why why why why why why why D

Why why why why why why why why why D

A Why why why why why why why why why D

A Why why why why why why why why why D E
