                                                         After all that I put you through
                                                         From my search for the promised land
   (Is it wrong to now decide?)

Now, you know I'm a wicked man
                                                         'Cause I feel it, believe it
I bit the hand that was feedin' me
                                                         I never meant to break your heart

The fear of love is my tendency
                                                         And left you dancin' in the dark
