

Copeland - Chin Up

Tom: B

With your eyes closed
Watching a strange show
Play out in your head
But you were smiling somehow
And your day froze
And everyone in it
Sat still as a rose
But you were moving somehow
Back to when we started
Losing who we were
Maybe we should only

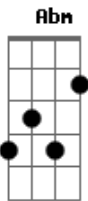

Tip a bottle back

To keep us filled up
Back to when we started
Losing who we were
Everybody knows that
You'd break your neck
To keep your chin up
Open your eyes
And the drops come
In a snailrace down to your neck
And look up
But you were smiling somehow
