Intro: G C G C
[Primeira Parte]
It's just me and all these stars tonight
The hone of the engine in my ears
I'll make my way back to the city lights
Where I've been spending all these years
The air is prickling at my neck again
Funny how this road can make you smile
With all the memories of the night we spent
The past escapes you for a while
Just for a while
( G C C Em )
( C Em C )
[Segunda Parte]
And i'll be waiting on the sunrise
Not some looks the other way
Shed some light on all these changes
Raise the glass to the break of day
Tonight I'm taking all the backroads home
Just gotta find that peace of mind
```

To face these changes i must face alone
Babe i just need a little time
And i walk mostly hopeless
Find some comfort in despair
Breed some sense into the senseless
Taste the sweet summer air
And I will walk with my head out now
And they'll bring me to my knees
I will stand up and be selfless
Shed some light on all this greed
And I?ll take what I'm given
Never ask for nothing more
I'll always question and i'll wonder
Just what the hell we're fighting for
I wont be fading with the sunset
I will drive on through the night
And I'll always take the backroads
Till I one day get it right
( C G )
[Final]
Until I Get it right
