                                                              Circa 1969 and I got stranded
                                                                         G
                                                              Yeah, but the comet's getting close
    G
                                                                        С
                                                              And I can't stand it.'
Exit 8, small cafe

                                                                               C
       G
It's three a.m.
                                                              So won't you come inside
                                                                                     C G C
                                                                          G
I've been driving all night
                                                              It's gonna be all right'
      G
Got a funny air, red-brown hair
                                                             G C G C

            G
It's gonna be all right'
                                                                    G
                                                              It's eight a.m.
         G
She said 'tired?'
                                                              She says 'I've been drinking all night

                          С
                                                                               G
                                                             And there is nothing I will not do to make it all right'
I said 'I'm a little bit unstable'
                                      C
         G
She said 'Honey, I will help you if I'm able
                                                              She said 'We're open all night
