

Coverdale Page - Take A Look At Yourself

tom:

Intro: E Badd9 A D E

E Badd9
The first thing in the morning

A E
The last thing at night

E Badd9
I just wanna hold you, babe

And make you feel alright

Dbm B
When the sun is shining

A E
Or the sky is filled with rain

E Gbm Abm
Wherever we may be

A Gbm E
I'm gonna make love with you again

E Badd9 A E
Now I don't need a crystal ball to tell me it's true

E Badd9 A D E
'Cos I've crossed too many rivers on my way to finding you

Dbm B A E
Your smile, like a summer sun, can brighten my day

E Gbm Abm
And when I'm feeling down

A Gbm E
You chase the dark clouds away

(E Gbm Abm B A)

A B A
There ain't no doubt about it, baby

A
I'm gonna shout about it

E A B
Take a look at yourself

E A B
Can't you see why I want you and nobody else?

Abm Dbm
'Cos the first thing in the morning

Abm A
The last thing at night

E Gbm Abm A
I just wanna hold you, babe

E A
An' make you feel alright

(A Gbm E)

E Badd9
Sometimes I feel it in my bones

A E
When the cold northwinds blow

E Badd9
But, when you put your arms around me

I can feel it no more

Dbm B A E
I've been guilty of a thousand crimes in matters of the heart

E Gbm Abm A Gbm E
But, just the thought of losing you, tears me apart

(B A)

A B A
There ain't no doubt about it, baby

A
I'm gonna shout about it

E A B
Take a look at yourself

E A B
Can't you see why I want you and nobody else?
