

Crazy Ex-Girlfriend - This Is My Movement

There's a rumbling within me
Something I just can't ignore
I thought I could contain it
I can't hold it in anymore
It started as just a trickle
Loose and undefined
Now it's starting to solidify
Into something we can all get behind
This is my movement
Can't stop this movement
It's coming out fast
In a powerful blast
From deep inside of me
Like an explosion
Of built-up emotion
Oh, I wanna scream and shout

I gotta let it out
'Cause this movement is bigger than me
My movement's getting stronger
There's no containing it
I can't wait any longer
I've really, really got to
Shine a light on this issue
(C G)
I know what you mean
I work at a hotline for suicidal teens
What's your hashtag?
We don't have one it's a call center
Yeah, that's not a movement
Mine is a movement
A big ol' stinky movement
Oh, it's gonna be a beauty
'Cause it's my duty to spread it all over the world
I'm gonna spread it all over the world
