Am
Helplessly hoping
C G
Her harlequin hovers nearby,
D
Awaiting a word.
Am
Gasping at glimpses
C
Of gentle true spirit
G D
He runs, wishing he could fly,
Am C G D
only to trip at the sound of good-byyyyy
Am
Wordlessly watching
C G
He waits by the window and wonders
D
At the empty place inside
Am C
Heartlessly helping himself to her bad dreams
G D Am C G F
He worries Did he hear a good-bye? Or even hellooooo?
G F

They are one person,
G F
they are too alone,
G F
they are three together,
G F C G
they are for each other.
Am
Stand by the stairway,
C you'll see something
G D
certain to tell you confusion has its cost
Am
Love isn't lying
C G
It's loose in a lady who lingers
D
Saying she is lost
Am C G F
And choking on helloooooo
G F
They are one person,
G F
they are too alone,
G F
they are three together,
G F C G
they are for each other.
