

Crosby, Stills and Nash - Run From Tears

And I didn't mean to take you for granted
                tom:
Intro: G A G A
                                                                 Only knew that it felt good at home
                                                                                           Gbm7
                                                                 But you left me so disenchanted
I don't Run from tears, that's my weakness
                                                                 I was blind of course until you were gone
But I know you still love me, though you don't believe it
                                                                 I'm drowning
And I never thought that we were a loser
                                                                 G A
                                                                 I'm fighting
Only didn't hear enough of the songs
                                                                G A G A G A Something special is in me dying
Everything was always going to be smoother
All we needed was some time left alone
                                                                 ( G A )
( G A G A )
                                                                There's an empty place, in my bed
                                                                And my heart is beating, against my head
        A G A G
Something special is in me dying
                                                                 The blood, rushing through my veins
( G A )
                                                                          Em7
                                                                 Becomes a flood of tears, once again
Are you punishing me, for my weakness
When you know about me girl, I cannot be beaten, down too far ( G A G A )
