

Crosby, Stills and Nash - Run From Tears

tom:
Intro: G A G A
G A
I don't Run from tears, that's my weakness
G A
But I know you still love me, though you don't believe it

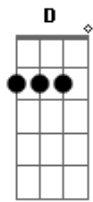

Am Gbm7
And I never thought that we were a loser
Am Gbm7
Only didn't hear enough of the songs
Am Gbm7
Everything was always going to be smoother
Am Gbm7
All we needed was some time left alone

(G A G A)
(G A G A)

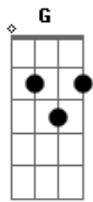

G A G A G A
Something special is in me dying
(G A)

G A
Are you punishing me, for my weakness
G A
When you know about me girl, I cannot be beaten, down too far

Am Gbm7
And I didn't mean to take you for granted
Am Gbm7
Only knew that it felt good at home
Am Gbm7
But you left me so disenchanted
Am Gbm7
I was blind of course until you were gone
G A
I'm drowning
G A
I'm fighting

G A G A G A
Something special is in me dying
(G A)

G A
There's an empty place, in my bed
G A
And my heart is beating, against my head

Em7 A
The blood, rushing through my veins
Em7 A
Becomes a flood of tears, once again

(G A G A)
(G A G A)
