

Crossfade - I Think You Should Know

Tom: C And even though there's more to say, I've tried to steal myself away To play Emadd9, just add a finger on the 2nd fret of the Fm Am high  $\mathbf{E}$  string (variation 3), I've taken all I can, I can't help myself! the rest is played as displayed (when hovering over the F7M chords). I think you should know how it feels falling down and out alone when no one cares Αm One day I fell asleep and dreamt of something to keep I think you should know how it feels when the world buries your soul and you're Opened up my dying mind to see the things that I'd never find Am Em still alive SOLO: Am Am F F7M Something true and beautiful was waiting there for me F F7M  $\mathsf{Am}$ Em Am In a dream where I believed I'd find my way back home There must be someone out there who can hear me screaming out F F7M Am I think you should know how it feels falling down and out I know there must be someone who cares just enough to help me alone when no one cares F7M Am Am I think you should know how it feels when the world buries Tell me there's someone out there, I know you hear me now your soul and you're Am F Am still alive I know there's someone who cares, so please just help me out! C Fm Em B7 Don't ask what you can tell when I scratch myself to sleep I know you hear me now Em Am And don't try to wake me up when I fall down, I bleed I know there's someone who cares, so please just help me out! Em OUTRO: Am Am F Am

Acordes

