

Crowded House - Sister Madly

Tom: A

(N. Finn)

NOTES:

-- to play this the way it was originally played, all chords on the verses are bar chords: Em on the 7th fret, A on the 5th fret, and C on the 8th fret.

-- in the tab of the Richard Thompson solo, the notation "11 " means to play the 11th fret but bend the note up (not necessarily all the way up to the tone of the 12th fret--just a quick, ornamental bend. you know, Thompson is famous for this kind of thing.)
Intro: Em A Em C

Em A
now you're heading down to get someone
Em C should've done what he had to do years ago
Em A
the position is coming through
Em C all the people that you're standing on
Em A
all the people that you're standing on
Em C
now you're heading down to be someone
Em A
someone that you've seen in a magazine
Em C
your premonition is coming true
Em A
oh baby you're not so green
Em C
no baby you're not so green
Em A

no baby you're nutso

Am D G D
sister madly waking up the dead
Am D G D
you're systematically stepping on my head
Am D G D
sister madly waking up the dead
Am B7 E
you're systematically stepping on my head

now you're heading down to find something something that you buried in your back yard
the position is coming through
from all the dirt that you're digging up
from all the dirt that you're digging up now you're heading down to be somewhere somewhere you imagined in your wildest dream the opposition is coming through from all the people that you're standing on
from all the people that you're standing on now you better you'd better take a firm hand

sister madly waking up the dead
you're systematically stepping on my head
sister madly waking up the dead
you're systematically stepping on my head

SOL0:

now you're heading down to get someone
