

Crumb - So Tired

Tom: D
Intro: A Bm Gbm

A Bm Gbm
When I was sixteen, I learned to sing, I learned to sing
A Bm Gbm
But every time I raise my voice, inside I feel so tired
A Bm Gbm
And I feel like the world is filled with people who can't hear themselves speak
A Bm Bm Gbm
So the silence over takes my mind, I can't find time to lose my

(Em Gbm Em Gbm)

D F A
Chasing the daylight, I'm riding the train
Gbm D F A
Trying to stop, but this feeling remains
Gbm D F A
Chasing the daylight, I'm riding the train
Gbm D F A
Trying to stop, but this feeling remains
Bm Gbm Gbm

I can hear my voice inside me moving, cracking everyday
A Bm Gbm
My mother told me: It's not in your head, it's running through your veins
A B Gbm
So get into the game, she said, resist the pain, don't go insane
A B Gbm
But I'm already crazy, don't you know? That's why I got to go now
(Em Gbm Em Gbm)

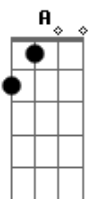

D F A
Chasing the daylight, I'm riding the train
