

Current Joys - Kids

Tom: Gb
Intro: Gb Db B Gb

I am just a kid
I never use my brain
I only use my heart
And my imagination

I am just a kid
I always make mistakes
And I never say I'm sorry
Cause there mistakes that I made

[Solo] Gb Db B Gb

I am just a kid
I've never seen the world
And I haven't quite decided

If I'm a boy or a girl

Oh I am just a kid
I'm afraid of the dark
But I'm obsessed with ideas
One day I'll go far

Oh I'm no longer a kid
And everything has changed
There's nothing in my heart
And lightning in my brain

So listen up you kids
And here what I say
Don't listen to your brain
And follow your dreams
