

Daisy Jones And The Six - Two Against Three

tom:

Intro: D Em D D G

[Primeira Parte]

The days were wide open
 At the heart of all my joy
 Boys were invincible lovers
 Just begging to be destroyed
 They're up in the morning
 Regretfully sobbing and gone
 I'm bathed and going back to bed
 This was never any cause for alarm

[Refrão]

It seems you have a choice to make
 The shell is white and yours to break
 Either way, it's just as well
 All I need's a promise I can keep to myself
 ( D Em D D G )

[Segunda Parte]

The days were wide open

They leave with their lovers
 Oh, talk aloud in their sleep
 Drifting off into dreaming
 Never as quiet as they seem to be
 I know those mornings
 Are as good as it ever can be
 Feeling our hearts are beating
 Tenderly, two against three

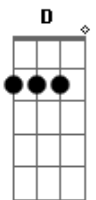

[Refrão]

It seems you have a choice to make
 The shell is white and yours to break
 Either way, it's just as well
 All I need's a promise I can keep to myself
 ( D Em D D G )

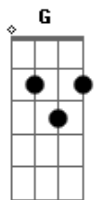

[Final]

I'm nowhere near you
 Nowhere near where I should be
 Feeling our hearts are beating
 Tenderly, two against three

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com