Damian Marley - Affairs Of The Heart

```
Tom: D
                                                                                  Am7
                                                                And i can't do without you darlin
m Ooh yea
                                                                                 Gm7
                                                                Yes and i would miss you baby
Ooh yea
                                                                Am7
                                                                Girl you know i love you bad
            Dm7
                          Am7
Would you believe me if i told you
                                                                Dm7
          Dm7
                           Am7
                                                                                Am7
Will you believe me when i say
                                                                Affairs of the heart
                                                                Dm7
                                                                                Am7
                                                                Together we've grown
Dm7
               Am7
Affairs of the heart
                                                                Dm7
                                                                                 Am7
                                                                If things fall apart
Dm7
              Am7
Together we've grown
                                                                Dm7
                                                                                  Am7
       Am7
                                                                All i want you to know
Dm7
If ever apart
                                                                                     Gm7
Dm7
                                                                Is your love is life changing
                  Am7
All i want you to know
                                                                                       Am7
                     Gm7
                                                                And i couldn't be the same without you darling
Is your love is life changing
                                                                                  Gm7
                                                                Your love is life saving
                     Am7
And i couldn't be the same without you darling
                                                                           Am7
                                                                You always catch me when i fall
                  Gm7
Your love is life saving
          Am7
                                                                     Dm7
                                                                When i'm away is like my songs are waste
You always catch me when i fall
                                                                                 Am7
         Dm7
                                                                Cause you're not near to hear me
                           Am7
When the tour bus drop off and all light lock off
                                                                      Dm7
                                                                                                                   Am7
    Dm7
                    Am7
                                                                If i lost my way i know i'll be ok cause you'd be there to
And i'm a mere mortal again care me
Dm7
                                                                                 Gm7
                        Am7
Promoter belly full and all the fans gone home
                                                                And woman i can see tings clearly
                         Am7
   Dm7
                                                                                         Am7
I'm glad that you're more than a friend
                                                                You genuine because you love sincerely
                        Gm7
                                                                                          Gm7
                                                                You never let mi down not even nearly, not even barely
Woman your love is life changing
                      Am7
                                                                Δm7
And i couldn't be the same without you darling
                                                                Girl you know i love you bad
                  Gm7
Your love is life saving
                                                                Dm7
                                                                Some see the laughter and don't see the tears
          Am7
You always catch me when i fall
                                                                Δm7
                                                                Some see the courage and don't see the fear
        Dm7
                                   Am7
                                                                Dm7
There's people just like you and me, we pass them in the
                                                                Some for dem self and dem don't intend to share traffic
                                                                Am7
   Dm7
                           Am7
                                                                Some say a love and only pretend to care
Dat never fall in love, so mi have fi say mi lucky
                                                                Gm7
                         Am7
                                                                Well nuff a dem a just miss congeniality
Dm7
Nuff a dem nuh fortunate enough to have somebody
                                                                Am7
                                                                Dem pretty face and dem nah face reality
    Dm7
                            Am7
Some just cannot see beyond the flesh and it's so funny
                                                                Gm7
                                                                While dem a quantity woman you a quality
                          Am7
Never get too caught up in yourself to feel the magic
                                                                Am7
                                                                Girl you know i love you bad
Dm7
                          Am7
True love come and pass you by your life but it's so tragic
                   Am7
                                                                Dm7
Dm7
                                                       Dm7
                                                                                Am7
                                                                Affairs of the heart
Am7
Opportunity is scarce so take while you have it, don't wait
                                                                Dm7
                                                                                Am7
                                                                Together we've grown
till you a panic
                                                                       Am7
                                                                Dm7
        Dm7
                                                                If ever apart
                            Am7
Well di last man yu deh wid mek a big mistake
                                                                Dm7
                                                                                    Am7
                                                                All i want you to know
Dm7
                             Am7
Left and gone fi good and miss out some ting weh great
                                                                                     Gm7
                            Am7
                                                                Is your love is life changing
Dm7
Loyal and full a faith well nuff a dem a move fake
                                                                                  Am7
                Am7
                                                                I couldn't be the same without you darling
Dm7
Our ting separate wi can't separate
                                                                                  Gm7
                                                                Your love is life saving
             Gm7
Cause i would miss you baby
                                                                            Am7
                                                                You always catch me when i fall
```

Acordes

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br

