

Damien Rice - Delicate

Tom: F

(com acordes na forma de Capostraste na 5ª casa Capo 5th fret Intro: and Verses: C )

Chorus:

listen to cd for proper strumming pattern

Intro: We might kiss when we are alone
 When nobody's watching
 We might take it home
 We might make out when nobody's there
 It's not that we're scared
 It's just that it's delicate

So why do you fill my sorrow

Acordes

With the words you've borrowed From the only place you've know And why do you sing Hallelujah If it means nothing to you Why do you sing with me at all?

We might live like never before
When there's nothing to give
Well how can we ask for more
We might make love in some sacred place
The look on your face is delicate

So why do you fill my sorrow
With the words you've borrowed
From the only place you've know
And why do you sing Hallelujah
If it means nothing to you
Why do you sing with me at all?

So why do you fill my sorrow
With the words you've borrowed
From the only place you've know
And why do you sing Hallelujah
If it means nothing to you
Why do you sing with me at all?
