

Damien Rice - I Remember

Tom: C

I Remember it well

I Remember it well

Won't you hear tonight.....

Cause I can't believe.....

Won't you hear....

...down

The rest of Lisa's part continues similar to this although it slows down in parts to link to Damien's part

Damien's Part

The second part of the song is sung by Damien and is much easier to play than Lisa's because it's mostly strumming.

Below I have tabbed out the chords used in this part. yourself.

Repeat this part

When the cello kicks in it mirrors part of the melody from Lisa's part. I think Damien plays it live sometimes but I'm not sure. Keep strumming but try to include the hammer-ons and individual notes below in time with the cello.

Hope you understand all this.
Have Fun
