tom: No, I wont be coming home tonight I'll be drinking under neon lights Sun, we have not been friends I pour my make-up on my face and go We have not spoke in months I'll know that I'll be alright Or even made amends No, I wont be coming home tonight Time, you can have your way I'll be drinking under neon lights G And if you take my nights So, none of my dreams come true Would you leave me my days If I, I can't see myself So now I miss you As the lights go down So now I miss you G I won't see no-one else I miss you I miss you I pour my make-up on my face and go I miss you I'll know that I'll be alright I pour my make-up on my face and go No, I wont be coming home tonight I'll know that I'll be alright I'll be drinking under neon lights No, I wont be coming home tonight I pour my make-up on my face and go I'll be drinking under neon lights I'll know that I'll be alright I pour my make-up on my face and go No, I wont be coming home tonight I'll know that I'll be alright I'll be drinking under neon lights No, I wont be coming home tonight I'll be drinking under neon lights Sun, oh you do me no good None of my plans work out So, none of my dreams come true The way I thought they would So now I miss you If I, I can't be myself So now I miss you And if the lights won't shine I miss you I'll become someone else I miss you I pour my make-up on my face and go I miss you I'll know that I'll be alright Acordes G
