

Danny Williams - A Cottage For Sale

```
Tom: D
                                   Gb7
Our little dream castle with every dream gone
      B7
                                  Gdim
Is lonely and silent the shades are all drawn

                 D7 G
                                   Gm7
And my heart is heavy as I gaze upon E A7 D
A cottage for sale
      D
The lawn we were proud of is waving in hay

B7 Gdim Gm7
                       Gdim
Our beautiful garden has withered away.
$\operatorname{D7}$ \operatorname{D7} \operatorname{G} \operatorname{Gm7} Where we planted roses the weeds seem to say

But when I reach the window there's only empty space
D Gb7 Dbm7
The key's in the mail box, the same as before
B7 Gdim Gm7
But no one is waiting for me anymore
D7 D7 G Gm7
The end of our story is told on the door
