Darlene Love - All Alone On Christmas

Visions of sugar plums have disappeared tom: G D Do you remember sleigh riding in the snow D Bm The cold wind is blowin' and the streets are getting dark And dancing all night to "Baby, Please Come Home" Bm I'm writing you a letter and I don't know where to start Today's celebration is bittersweet G There's mothers and children in the street The bells will be ringing Saint John the Divine Α G I get a little lonely every year around this time D (Tell me) I've got to know D The music plays all night in Little Italy Where do lonely hearts go Bm G The lights will be going up on old Rockefella's tree Because nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas G People window shopping on Fifth Avenue I'm all grown up but I'm the same you'll see All I want for Christmas is you Gbm I'm writing this letter 'cause I still believe D G (Tell me) I've got to know Dear Santa I've been good this year B7 A Bm Where do lonely hearts go Can't you stay a little while with me right here D G Α Because nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas (Tell me) I've got to know Dbm Things are different since you've been here last Where do lonely hearts go Dbm Bm Δ B Childhood dreaming is a thing of the past Because nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas В Е Dbm Maybe you can bring us some hope this year Nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas В Α Nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas Acordes

