

David Bowie - Hearts Filthy Lesson

Tom: D
that main little lick

it's a trill pick while sliding down the E string, and a quick little lick on the D string, a guitar that's mega-distorted plays an A chord before this part, but it's really far away in the mix.

the "i'm already ..." part is just chords: G A D (right before the "i think i've lost my way..." part.)
