David Bowie - Maid Of Bond Street

Tom: G
E Gbm
This Girl
is made of lipstick,
Powder and paint,

Sees the pictures of herself, every magazine on every shelf
This girl is Maid of Bond Street, hailing cabs

This girl is Maid of Bond Street, hailing cabs
Lunches with executives, gleaming teeth, sipaparatives (thats
what the words
sound like,
I have no idea what they really are.)

E
This girl is a lonely girl
E
Takes the train from Banning Turn(?) to Oxford Turn(?) E $\qquad$
She reads the daily news but passengers
C Am F G Don't smile at her, oh no, don't smile at her.
E Gbm G

This girl is made of loneliness, a broken heart
C Am F

For the boy that she once knew doesn't want to know her anymore.

E D
And this girl is a lonely girl,
E D
Everything she wants is hers but she can't make it
E D
With the boy she really wants to be with
All the time, to love all the time.
E Gbm G

This boy is made of envy, jealosy
C Am F G

He doesn't have a limosine, really wants to be a star himself.

| E G A | D G |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |

And this girl, her world is made of flashlights and film
G A D G

Her cares are scratched on the cutting room floor

And Maid of Bond Street, ride 'round in chauffeured cars G C F G
Maid of Bond Street, picture clothes, eyes of stars
G C G G
Maid of Bond Street, children have love affairs
G C (tacet)
Maid of Bond Street, children have worldly cares.
$F \subset \subset \subset F G$.
