

David Bowie - Survive

Tom: G

Oh my, naked eyes
I should have kept you
I should have tried
I should of been more wiser kind of guy
I miss you
Give me wings
Give me space
Give me money for a change of face
There's noisy rooms and passion pants
I loved you
Where's the morning in my life?
Where's the sense in staying right?
Who said time is on my side?
I got ears and eyes and nothing in my life
But I survive your naked eyes

I'll survive

Instr : D C D C Am Em D G

You alone across the floor
You and me and nothing more
You're the great mistake I never made
I never lied to you, I hated when you lied
But I'll survive your naked eyes I'll survive
Little boys, all snowy white
Razzle dazzle clubs, every night
Wish I'd sang a Valentine
I loved you
I'll survive naked eyes
I'll survive I'll survive my naked eyes
I'll survive I'll survive Naked eyes
I'll survive I'll survive I'll survive
