Tom: E
                                                           Right here where I stand
                                                                       Е
                                                           Open up your arms and let me in [Primeira Parte]
                                                                     Dbm
                                                           Out here on my own
This is no escape
                                                           I know I'm not alone
This is no surrender
                                                           Let me in your heart
My dear
                                                           Right where you stand
                                                           Take me as I am
This is my parade
My happy ever after
                                                           Give a second chance
  E
But only if you're here
                                                           We can take tomorrow
When I'm lost and broken
                                                           Make it better, you and me
                                                           Give me one more try

                                                           Before we say goodbye
Take me as I am

                                                           Right here where I stand
Right where you stand

And make it last forever
