

David Kushner - Daylight

tom:

Intro: F Dm Am C
F Dm C

F Dm C
Telling myself I won't go there

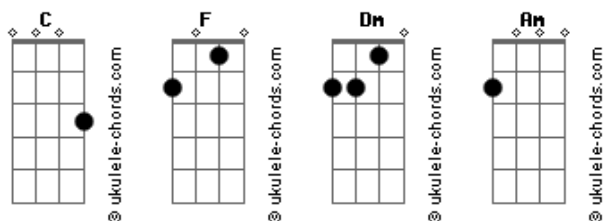

Oh but I know that I won't care
F Dm C
Trying to wash away all the blood I've split
F Dm
This lust is a burden that we both share
C
Two sinners can atone from a lone prayer
F Dm C
Souls tied intertwined by our pride and guilt

[Pré-Refrão]
Am C F
There's darkness in the distance
Dm
From the way that I've been living
Am C F Dm
But I know I can't resist it

[Refrão]
F Dm
Oh I love and hate at the same time
Am
You and I drink poison from the same glassware
F Dm
I love and hate at the same time
Am
Hiding all our sins from daylight
F Dm
From the daylight, running from the daylight
Am
From the daylight, running from the daylight
F Dm Am
Oh I love and hate at the same time

[Segunda Parte]
F Dm C
Telling myself it's the last time
Can you smell any mercy that you might find
F Dm C

Acordes

If I'm down on my knees again
F Dm
Deep down, way down Lord I try
Try to follow your light, but it's nighttime
F Dm C
Please don't leave me in the end

[Pré-Refrão]
Am C F
There's darkness in the distance
Dm
I'm begging for forgiveness
Am C F Dm
But I know I can't resist it
