

David Nail - Sound Of A Million Dreams

Tom: E

(com acordes na forma de C)
Capostrate na 4ª casa
Intro: F G Am C F

Verse 1:

Seger was singing words I could believe in
And Main Street was my street that night.
So I called up Samantha and asked her the change of running out neath the moonlight.
Though she's not with me now, she can always be found when i rewind the radio dial. And like it was then,
I'll feel her on my skin, and I'm back there for a while.

Chorus:

So I labor for hours cause I know the power of a song
when a song hits you right. Pour my soul into stories of life, hoping someone'll hear one tonight. Maybe my voice 'll cut through the noise and stir up an old memory. And out of these piano keys, come's the sound... the sound of a million dreams.

Verse 2:

My 18th summer I was a cocky up-and-comer cranking up "Born to Run."

Turned left out the drive with the pistons open wide and I came back a prodigal son. My spirit was broken, she threw the door open,
"I love you" not "I told you so." When I hear "Mama Cried," I still break down and cry and pull to the side of the road.

Chorus:

So I labor for hours cause I know the power of a song
when a song hits you right. Pour my soul into stories of life, hoping someone'll hear one tonight. Maybe my voice 'll cut through the noise and stir up an old memory. And out of these piano keys, come's the sound... the sound of a million dreams.
(F C Am G)(x2)

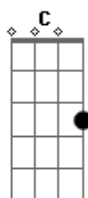

Chorus:

So I labor for hours cause I know the power of a song
when a song hits you right. Pour my soul into stories of life, hoping someone'll hear one tonight. Maybe my voice 'll cut through the noise and stir up an old memory. And out of these piano keys, come's the sound... the sound of a million dreams
