

Deadlock - To Where The Skies Are Blue

Tom: C

Intro: D7 C F C F

Am A D C F
Sun goes down once again
Am C F C
While I sit here and feel the tears
F Dm C F
Running down my cheeks
Am C F
No I am not afraid of the dark
Dm C F C Am C F
But the darker it gets the more I realize
Dm C F
That there is no one to depend on
C F
No one to believe in
Dm C F
And so I wait to die here all alone
Dm C F
Like the daylight dies while it is fading away
Dm C
Because nobody knows for sure
F Am C F
That the sun will burn through that cold night once more
Am C F
Through that cold night once more
(F Am C)

F Dm C F
To where the skies are blue
F C F
So I pray for someone
Am G F C
To come and make my life seem like
F C F C
It's still worth living it
Am C F
So I pray for you to come
Dm C F

And so I wait to die here all alone
Dm C F
Like the daylight dies while it is fading away
Dm C
Because nobody knows for sure
F Am C F
That the sun will burn through that cold night once more
Am C F
Through that cold night once more
F Em G7 F Am C
But still the hardest things to say
G7 F Dm C F
Are the words that mean the most
C F
So come on angel, say that you
F C F
Love me and nothing in this
F C F
World will ever scare me again.
Dm C G7 F
Take me to where the skies are always blue
C Em G F
Always blue
C Em G7 C
Always blue
F C Em G F Dm C F
Always

Dm C F
And so I wait to die here all alone
(C Dm C)
Dm C F
Like the daylight dies while it is fading away
C F
F C
Because nobody knows for sure
G F Am C
That the sun will burn through that cold night once more
