

Death Cab For Cutie - Black Sun

Tom: D
Intro: Bm D A Em

Bm D
There is whiskey in the water
A Em
And there is death upon the vine
Bm D
There is fear in the eyes of your father
A Bm
And there is "Yours" and there is "Mine"
Bm D
There is a desert veiled in pavement
A Em
And there's a city of seven hills
Bm D
And all our debris flows to the ocean
A Bm
To meet again, I hope it will

G A Bm
How could something so fair be so cruel
G Bm A Bm
When this black sun revolved around you
(Bm D A Em)

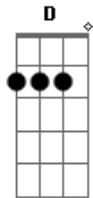

Bm D
There is an answer in a question
A Em
And there is hope within despair
Bm D
And there is beauty in a failure
A Bm

And there are depths beyond compare
Bm D
There is a role of a lifetime
A Em
And there's a song yet to be sung
Bm D
And there's a dumpster in the driveway
A Bm
Of all the plans that came undone
G A Bm
How could something so fair be so cruel
G Bm A Bm
When this black sun revolved around you
G A Bm
How could something so fair be so cruel
G Bm A Bm
When this black sun revolved around you

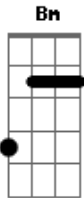

Bm D
There is whiskey in the water
A Em
And there is death upon the vine
Bm D
And there is grace within forgiveness
A Bm
But it's so hard for me to find

G A Bm
How could something so fair be so cruel
G Bm A Bm
When this black sun revolved around you
(Bm D A Em G Bm)
