

Death Cab For Cutie - Scientist Studies

Tom: E	thought that this meant something more than broken hearts and new
Tuning: Standard
Intro: (Riff 1 - repeat twice):	addictions.
Verse 1:	We'll leave our sins within the carpet twine.
What ghosts exist behind these attic walls?	Our bodies will dissolve the chemicals in due time.
There's got to be a simpler explanation	Chorus:
'cos I	Promises of payments were u-upon your shoulders constantly but
scrimped and I saved just to find that they've been splicing my	don't forget to entertain 'cause this is your first defense.
inventions.	This is your first defense.
Cold skin and bones and this latitude	Repeat twice:
We ain't paying 'til the heat comes through	Outro:
so you	This is your first defense. This was your first defense.
slept in a stocking cap and wool scarf and	This is my last defense.
Chorus:	Complete lyrics:
Promises of payments were u-upon your shoulders constantly but	What ghosts exist behind these attic walls? There's got to be a simpler explanation 'cause I scrimped and I saved just to find that they've been splicing my inventions. Cold skin and bones and this latitude we ain't paying 'til the heat comes through. So you slept in a stocking cap and wool scarf and don't forget to entertain 'cause this is your first defense.	Promises of payments were upon your shoulders constantly but don't forget to entertain 'cause this is your first defense.
Riff 1 - repeat twice:
Verse 2:	Four year offense to the devoted type I may have got an invitation but I wasn't invited. But I thought that this meant something more than broken hearts and new addictions. We'll leave our sins within the carpet twine. Our bodies will dissolve the chemicals in due time.
Four year offense to the devoted type	Promises of payments were upon your shoulders constantly but don't forget to entertain 'cause this is your first defense. This is your first defense.
I may have got an invitation but I wasn't invited.	This is your first defense. This was your first defense. This is my last defense.
But I

Acordes

