

Death Cab For Cutie - What Sarah Said

Tom: C

INTRODUÇÃO

F, G, Am, C

F
C

And it came to me then that every plan is a tiny prayer to father time

F
Em

As I stared at my shoes in the ICU that reeked of piss and 409

C

And I rationed my breathes as I said to myself that I'd already taken too
much today

F Em

As each descending peak of the LCD took you a little farther away from me

C

Away from me
Intro: DUÇÃO

F
Am

Amongst the vending machines and year-old magazines in a place where we only say goodbye

F Am

It stung like a violent wind that our memories depend on a faulty camera in our minds

F Am

But I knew that you were a truth I would rather lose than to have never lain
beside at all

F
Am

And I looked around at all the eyes on the ground as the TV entertained
itself

Dm
Em

'Cause there's no comfort in the waiting room

Dm
Em

Just nervous pacers bracing for bad news

Dm
Em

And then the nurse comes round and everyone will lift their heads

Dm
Em

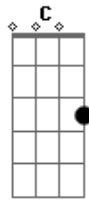

But I'm thinking of what Sarah said that "Love is watching someone die"

F
Am

So who's going to watch you die?
