

Deep Purple - The Surprising

Tom: G
Intro:

Em D C Em G Am

It wasn't quite the curse of Tutankhamon

Em D C Em G Am

Or the kiss of death from Judas in the night

Em D C Em G Am

And it felt so far beyond the blue horizon

Em D C Em G Am

Tempting me with transports of delight

Bm G Am

And when the devil took my hand and said

Am F

Come along with me

(Em D C Em)

Em D C Em G Am

There I was, wide awake and dreaming

Em D C Em G Am

Reaching out for something in the sky

Em D C Em G Am

But I could not control that trembling feeling

Em D C Em G Am

Everything I want is slipping by

Bm G

And when the devil took my hand and said

Am F

Something you should see

Em D C Em G Am

I never knew what happened to my nightmare

Em D C Em

Everything went dark that August day

Em D C Em G Am

And the eclipse was on the other side of somewhere

Em D C Em G Am

But I was on the upside of afraid

[Chorus 3]

Bm G Am

And then an angel took my hand and said

Am F

Come along with me
