

Des Rocs - Used To The Darkness

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

I've made mistakes, the Lord struck me down
 Caught in a landslide, lost underground
 I hear them gates, swing open wide
 Come close to midnight, hell sent me down

[Pré-Refrão]

And then my eyes got used to the darkness
 And everyone that I knew
 Was lost and so long forgotten after you

[Refrão]

Now would you break before you twist the knife?
 Yeah, would you take my hand and take a life?
 I'm too damn young to give up on the light
 I'm used to the darkness, I'm used to the darkness
 I'm just a man, I'm only flesh and bone
 I can't bring it back on everything I've done
 And now there's no-one else left to love
 I'm used to the darkness, I'm used to the darkness

[Segunda Parte]

Sweet smell of roses, have come at last
 One fist of Earth fights, to come join the rest

[Pré-Refrão]

And then my eyes got used to the darkness
 And everyone that I knew

Was lost and so long forgotten after you

[Refrão]

Now would you break before you twist the knife?
 Yeah, would you take my hand and take a life?
 I'm too damn young to give up on the light
 I'm used to the darkness, I'm used to the darkness
 I'm just a man, I'm only flesh and bone
 I can't bring it back on everything I've done
 I'm used to the darkness, I'm used to the darkness

[Ponte]

I got used to the darkness too
 I got used to the darkness for you
 I got used to the darkness too
 Yes I did

[Refrão]

Would you break before you twist the knife?
 Would you take my hand and take a life?
 I'm too damn young to give up on the light
 I'm used to the darkness, I'm used to the darkness
 I'm just a man, I'm only flesh and bone
 I can't bring it back on everything I've done
 I'm used to the darkness, I'm used to the darkness
 Na na naa na naa na na naa, na na na naa na naa na na naa
 Na na na naa na naa na na naa
 I'm used to the darkness, I'm used to the darkness
