                                  Δ
I didn't know what you were going through
                                                                                                    F
                                                                And you can find me in the space between
                         Е
I thought that you were fine
                                                                                           B
                     B
                                                                Where two worlds come to meet
Why did you have to hide?
                                                                                       Dbm
                                                                I'll never be out of reach
                         Dbm
                                                                       Α
I didn't want to let you down
                                                                F
                                                                 'Cause you're a part of me so you can find me in the space
                 Δ
But the truth is out between

                                             B
It's tearing me apart, not listening to my heart
                                                                You'll never be alone
                                                                                      Dbm
                                                                No matter where you go
                В
I really had to go
                                                                         Α
                                                                                                   Е
                                                                We can meet in the space between
And I would never stop you
Even though it changed
                                                                There are no words left to say
               R
Nothing has to change
                                                                I know you gotta find your place
                                                                But this is not the end (no)
                                   F
And you can find me in the space between

                                                                between
And nothing can stay the same
                                                                                   R
                                                                You'll never be alone
            Α
It's growing pains
                                                                                      Dbm
                      Е
                                                                No matter where you go
Be proud of all the scars
                                                                         Α
                                                                We can meet in the space between, yeah
They make you who you are (oh, woah)
                                                                                      Dbm
                                                                No matter where you go
                    B
I know you have to stay
                                                                         Α
                                                                We can meet in the space between
