

Devendra Banhart - Saturday Night

Tom: G

Am
It's every Saturday night and the time sure is wrong
G D
Time to get uptight and along, alone
Am
Ask every Saturday night while the time sure is wrong
G
Having fun
D
So get along, alone, now alone
Am
Alone now
G D
Alone
Am
And the voice comes disembodied. Nothing there but you can hear it
G
You know how to numb the wound
But you don't know how to heal it
Am
Tryin' waiting for hours, days and years
G D
You keep waiting but no one's ever gonna show up here
Am
Please don't love me because, don't love me because
G D
You're through hating you
Am
Please don't love me because, don't love me because
G D
You're through hating you
Am
Why mourn the loss when life is letting. Go of us but not forgetting
G
Everything that made you stronger
Won't be around much longer
Am
You're the dream of love unspoken. You're a flower that never open

G
No exception will be made
We'll get a wrong set serenade
Am
Ask every Saturday night, oh. My nose is always bleeding
G
I forgot what I was reading
And now everybody's leaving
Am
Can't keep your eyes from closing. You're a blue sky decomposing
G D
As we all embrace what we've become
Am G D
And love always is merging to one
Am
Please don't love me because, don't love me because
G D
You're through hating you
Am
Please don't love me because, don't love me because
G D Am
You're through hating you
G D Am
You're through hating you
G D Am
You're through hating you
G D Am
You're through hating you
G D Am
You're through hating you, ooh
G D Am
You're through hating you
G D Am
You're through hating you, ooh
G D Am
You're through hating you
