

DeVotchka - Till The End Of Time

Tom: C

They're just words, they ain't worth nothing C E G
 Cloud your head and push your buttons C Em G
 And watch how they just dis-ap-pear C Em G
 When we're far away from here C Em G
 And everybody knows where this is heading F G
 Forgive me for forgetting C Am
 Our hearts irrevocably combined F G C
 Star-crossed souls slow dancing C Am
 Retreating and advancing F G C
 Across the sky until the end of time C Em G

Oh who put all those cares inside your head C Em G
 You can't live your life on your deathbed C Em G
 And it's been such a lovely day C Em G
 Let's not let it end this way C Em G
 Like sisters and brothers we lean on each other F G C Am
 Like sweethearts carved on a headstone F G C Am
 Oh why even bother, it'll be here tomorrow F G C Am
 It's not worth it sleeping alone F G C
 And look at you and me still here together C Em G
 There is no one knows you better C Em G
 And we've come such a long long way C Em G
 Let's put it off for one more day C Em G
