

Dido - Mary's In India

Tom: Bb
Intro: Bb

Bb
Danny is lonely 'cos
Eb
Mary's in India now
Bb Eb
She said she'd call but that was three weeks ago
Bb F Eb
She left all her things
Eb
Well, her books and her letters from him
Bb F Eb
As the sun rises on Mary, it sets on him

(chorus)
Bb F
And just dance, and just drink
Eb
And just see the things
F Bb
I'll probably never get the chance to see

Bb Eb
Danny's not eating, he's drinking and sleeping in Bb Eb
I saw him last night at a party, he's definitely thin
Bb
He says he's happy, he looked pretty good

Eb
But I think
Bb F Eb
That as the sun rises on Mary, it sets on him

(chorus)
Bb Eb
Danny came over last night and I cooked for him
Bb
We talked about you, Mary, and how much we loved you
Eb
still
Bb
He told me he's packed up your books and your letters
Eb
and things
Bb F Eb
But as the sun sets on Mary, it's rising on him

And we danced, and we drank
And I've seen some things you probably never got the chance to see

Bb
Don't worry, Mary
F Eb
Cause I'm taking care of Danny
F Bb
And he's taking care of me
