[Primeira Parte]

I see in your eyes a mix of desire
But your fear won't let you realize
That by my side, the world feels much lighter
The love I carry isn't just a fleeting fire

I picture you in the mountains, wooden chalets
A morning hike, and a relaxing bathtub break
At home, care becomes our safe place
Showing you love doesn't need any noise or race

[Pré-Refrão]

I'm not perfect, but my love is real
I don't fit in this shallow, superficial deal
I want to build, not just pass by
To prove that together, we can touch the sky

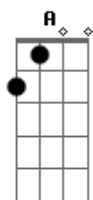

[Refrão]

Come into my life, come be my place
So together, we can make love embrace
It's not just a promise, it's strength to fight
Let me show you what true love feels like

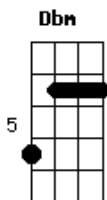

[Segunda Parte]

People run without knowing where to go

I want the peace of having you in my flow
Maturity comes with time and mistakes
We learn together, sharing the weight

I respect you as you are, no mask, no filter
Your smile is the key to my maze, my center
Living simple, away from all the stress
Reinventing ourselves with love and success

[Ponte]

Look at me, you don't need to fear
I'm the foundation, the support, the near
Let's write our own story, just you and me
Leave behind what the world can't see

[Refrão]

Come into my life, come be my place
So together, we can make love embrace
It's not just a promise, it's strength to fight
Let me show you what true love feels like

[Final]

Chalets in the mountains, sunrise at the top
Care at home, love in every drop
Surrender, come see what we can achieve
Two hearts willing, ready to believe
