

Doja Cat - So High

tom:
 Capostraste na 1ª casa

Blow weed, coke, pop X
 Speedin' up the heartbeat bangin' in my chest
 When you put it on me you relieve my stress
 You got me so high, takin' deep, deep breaths
 You get me so high, you get me so high
 I know you ain't a drug but, you get me so high
 [Refrão]

You get me so high, you get me so high
 I know you ain't a drug but, you get me so high
 You get me so high, you get me so high
 I know you ain't a drug but, you get me so high
 You get me so high, you get me so high
 You get me so high, you get me so high, high
 You got me so turnt up

This dude gotta be so high
 Weed always on my mind
 Now he always on my mind
 Doja
 Know you want some of this purr
 You ain't gotta say a word
 Just spark that let's get burnt
 Uh, then we'll roll up
 A hunnit fuckin' blunts

All up in my mouth
 Now I'm all up in yo
 This nigga got pounds of it

All up in his trunk
 Now we both look Asian
 He wavin' and I'm drunk
 I got dank shit in my cup

You know what Imma do to you
 I could get real used to you
 Blow, weed, X

And we sipping on that juicy-juice
 That's just what she choose to do, uh
 Man, this shit these drugs will do to you

Blow weed, coke, pop X
 Speeding up the heartbeat bangin' in my chest
 When you put it on me you relieve my stress
 You got me so high, takin' deep, deep breaths

[Refrão]
 You get me so high, you get me so high
 I know you ain't a drug but, you get me so high
 You get me so high, you get me so high
 I know you ain't a drug but, you get me so high
 You get me so high, you get me so high
 I know you ain't a drug, but you get me so high
 You get me so high, you get me so high
 You get me so high, you get me so high, high
