

Dolly Parton - Lonely Coming Down

Tom: D

D I woke up this morning in a strange place,
D I looked into the mirror at a strange face.
A Then I looked for you, but you could not be found,
G then I felt the lonely coming down.
D I walked across the room to the empty bed,
D saw the impress on the pillow where you laid your head.
A The presence of you still lingered all, all around,

A And once again I felt the lonely coming down.
D Then I felt the lonely dragging down my face,
D as I realized no one could take your place.
D I wondered where the love had gone that you and me had felt,
D then again I felt the lonely coming down.
D I wondered where the love had gone that you and me had felt,
D and again I felt the lonely coming down.
