

Dolores O'Riordan - Ordinary Day

Tom: C

This is just an Ordinary Day
 Wipe the Insecurities away
 I can see that the darkness will erode
 Looking out the corner of my eye
 I can see that the sunshine will explode
 Far across the desert in the sky

[Refrão]

Beautiful girl
 Won't you be my inspiration?
 Beautiful girl
 Don't you throw your love around
 What in the world, what in the world
 Could ever come between us?

Beautiful girl, beautiful girl
 I'll never let you down

This is the beginning of your day
 Life is more intricate than it seems
 Always be yourself along the way
 Living thourgh the spirit of your dreams

[Refrão]

Beautiful girl
 Won't you be my inspiration?
 Beautiful girl
 Don't you throw your love around
 What in the world, what in the world
 Could ever come between us?
 Beautiful girl, beautiful girl
 I'll never let you down
