

Don Edwards - Say Goodbye To Montana

tom:
 Up before the sunrise
 It's a rocky road back home
 The dust won't be near settled
 As where we just come from

[Segunda Parte]

I'll keep my promise to you
 Just like I said I would
 And lay you 'neath the pecan trees
 And hang your spurs for good

[Refrão]

Say goodbye to Montana
 Where the northers always blo-o-ow
 The paint brush will be blummin'
 By the time I get you home

[Terceira Parte]

We drove a herd from Texas
 To the big Montana sky
 I swear sometimes I wondered
 If we make it here alive

[Quarta Parte]

I wish I could of told you
 That you were my best friend
 I guess you always knew that
 But we were both too tough to bend

[Refrão]

Say goodbye to Montana
 Where the northers always blo-o-ow
 The paint brush will be blummin'
 By the time I get you home

[Ponte]

All honor to the cowboy
 Your praises, they will sing
 Cause you never sold your saddle
 And that's the most important thing

[Refrão]

Adios Montana!
 Where the northers always blo-o-ow
 The paint brush will be blummin'
 By the time I get you home
