I dwell in????...

G C G G

G

C F C

I dwell in the north in the green country

F G C G

Far I'm here, far I'm here

C F C

And I take to my rest at the end of day,

F G C G C

Whilst o'erhead pretty stars do play

And then I dream along

Then I make a song
About everything that I've known and felt

And it makes my sadness melt

D /f /e Dm

Dm
Then I wake up in the funny old kind of day
The rain has gone away,

Dm C
Watching the children sing and play

In the garden and the roadway

Up comes a little one singing a song

F About a friend she knows C called Rosie

Off to the greenwood you must go, bring-a me one fine posie
All of a sudden I'm light as air, I feel sad as a butterfly.
