Dream Theater - Beneath The Surface

Tom: Ab
Intro: Ab Cm Db Ab Bbm Db
      Ab Cm Db Ab Fm   Db

```
Ab                        Cm
Is there ever really a right time?
      Fm                          Db
You had led me to believe someday you'll be there for me
Ab                        Cm
When the stars above the light
        Fm                        Db
When you weren't so consumed I kept looking for the clues
Bbm                   Eb
So I waited in the shadows of my heart
Bbm                             Eb
And still the time was never right

      Ab                  Db
Until one day I stopped caring
      Ab                  Eb
And began to forget why I longed to be so close
      Ab                  Fm
And I disappeared into the darkness
        Bbm                       Fm
And the darkness turned to pain and never went away
        Bbm             Db    Eb                   Ab
Until all that remained was buried deep beneath the surface

( Ab  Cm  Db  Ab  Bbm  Db )
( Ab  Cm  Db  Ab  Fm   Db )

Ab                                Cm
A shallow of what things could've been
      Fm                          Db
Tired bones beneath of them I've guarded secrets out your frame
Ab                        Cm
Sort of thing I never knew
      Fm                               Db
You were searching for the words, for the moment to emerge
Bbm                   Eb
Yet the moment never came
Bbm                       Eb
```

```
You couldn't risk my fragile frame

        Ab                      Db
Until one day you stopped caring
        Ab                  Eb
And began to forget why I tried to be so close
        Ab                  Fm
And you disappeared into the darkness
          Bbm                     Fm
And the darkness turned to pain and never went away
          Bbm             Db    Eb                     Cm
Until all that remained was buried deep beneath the surface

( Cm  Db  Ab  Eb )
( Cm  Db  Ab  Eb )

Cm                              Db
I would scream just to be heard
                  Ab                          Eb
As if yelling at the stars, I was bleeding just to feel
Cm                    Db
You would never say a word
                          Ab                    Eb
Kept me reaching in the dark, always something to conceal

      Ab          Ab7        G#sus4
Until one day I stopped caring
      Ab                  Eb
And began to forget why I longed to be so close
      Ab                  Fm
And I disappeared into the darkness
        Bbm                       Fm
And the darkness turned to pain and never went away
        Bbm             Db    Eb                     Ab
Until all that remained was buried deep beneath the surface
 Ab  Cm Db  Ab  Bbm Db
                  Beneath the
 Ab Cm Db  Ab  Fm Db
  Surface

( E )
```

Acordes

Ab Cm Db Bbm Fm Eb Ab7 E