

Dua Lipa - No Goodbyes

Tom: C

Maybe one day

I can see you

We can smile and wave

And it'll be okay

Maybe one day it'll be cool

We could just be friends

Without the complications

That it brings

When we start saying things

Yeah, I hurt you

And you hurt me

Yeah, we did somethings that we can never take back

And we tried hard

just to fix it

But we broke it more and so I guess somethings are not meant to last

it is too much to ask

For tonight

Let's love like there's no goodbyes

Just for tonight

Pretend that is all alright

Why don't we hold each other

Use each other, whisper pretty lies

Just for tonight

Let's love like there's no goodbyes

No goodbyes, no goodbyes

No goodbyes, eh

In a dark room, we don't have to

See the light of truth

Between me and you

We can stay blind, in the meantime

Let our bodies say

What we can never seem to communicate

Even though is too late

For tonight

Let's love like there's no goodbyes

Just for tonight

Pretend that is all alright

Why don't we hold each other

Use each other, whisper pretty lies

Just for tonight

Let's love like there's no goodbyes

No goodbyes, no goodbyes, no goodbyes

No goodbyes, no goodbyes, no goodbyes

Maybe one day i'll see you

Just smile and wave and be okay

Just for tonight

Pretend that is all alright

Why don't we hold each other

Use each other, whisper pretty lies

Just for tonight

Let's love like there's no goodbyes

No goodbyes, no goodbyes, no goodbyes
