C F
Come my little son

C F C
And I will tell you what to do

F C
Undress yourself and get into bed

Am F
And a tale I'll tell to you

C F
It's all about your daddy

C Am
He's a man you seldom see

C F
For he had to roam, far away from home

C F C
Away from you and me

C F C
Remember laddie, he's still your dad

Am
Though he's working far away

C F
In the cold and heat, all the hours of
The week

C F C
On England's motorway

C F C
Now when you fall and hurt yourself

F C
And get a feeling bad

C F
It isn't any good

C F
To go a running for your dad

C F
For the only time since you were

C F

Born he's had to spend with you

C G F C
He was out of a job, and we hadn't a bob

F C
He was signing on the brew

C F C
Remember laddie he's still your Dad

C F
And he'll soon be home to stay

C G F C
For a week or two with me and you

C F C
When he's built the motorway

C F C
Remember laddie he's still your Dad

C F
And he'll soon be home to stay

C G F C
For a week or two with me and you

C F C
When he's built the motorway

C F C
Remember laddie he's still your Dad

C F
And he'll soon be home to stay

C G F C
For a week or two with me and you

C F C
When he's built the motorway

C G F C
For a week or two with me and you

C F C
When he's built the motorway
