

Dustin Kensrue - It's Not Enough

Tom: A
Intro: A

Though Gbm all the wealth of men was mine to squander A
Gbm And towers of ivory rose beneath my feet
Gbm Were palaces of pleasure mine to wander A
E The sum of it would leave me incomplete

Gbm Though every soul would hold my name in honor A
Gbm And truest love was always by my side
Gbm My praises sung by grateful sons and daughters A
E My soul would never still be satisfied

Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E
Gbm I could walk the world forever
A Till my shoes were filled with blood
Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E

Gbm Though I could live for all to lift them higher A
Gbm Or spend the centuries seeking light within Gbm Though I indulged my every dark desire A
E Exhausting every avenue of sin

Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E
Gbm

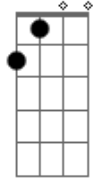

I could walk the world forever
A Till my shoes were filled with blood
Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E
Gbm I could right all wrongs, or ravage
A Everything beneath the sun
Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E

Gbm To make me whole A
Gbm It's not enough, it never was Gbm Awake my soul A
E It's not enough, it never was

Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E
Gbm I could walk the world forever
A Till my shoes were filled with blood
Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E
Gbm I could right all wrongs, or ravage
A Everything beneath the sun
Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E
Gbm Though all would bow to me
A Till I could drink my fill of fear and love
Gbm It's not enough, it's not enough E
