Dylan Espeseth - Falling Faster
                          tom:
                 G                    G
I've I've dodging all of my friends calls
Em
And I'm really sorry to em all
Bm
But I've been losing it
D
Going off of the deep end
G
I don't know what the future holds
Em
Can't imagine myself growing old
Bm                          D
Feel like the whole world's collapsing around me
G                         G
I don't know what the hell to do
                          Bm
I think my sanity is screwed
Feel like im Drifting alone in space

( G )

Em
I've been
Bm
Falling faster
D            G
My mind is going numb
Em
Life is
Bm
A big disaster
     D           G
I'm falling out of touch
                                Em
I've been having nightmares as of late
                          Bm

Still better than being awake
I hope i don't fall victim to myself
G                              Em
Don't think my mind will ever change
                          Bm
I think I might be stuck this way
I've been falling losing hope that anything could save me
D                  Bm
I think I might collapse real soon
                             Bm
Burn out and stay inside this room

I've been growing bleaker weaker
Fading every moment

( G )

Em
I've been
           Bm
Falling Faster
          D          G
My mind is going numb
G        Em
Life is
              Bm
A big disaster
           D          G
Im falling out of touch
                                Bm
I've been dodging all of my friends calls
                           Bm
And I'm really sorry to em all
But I've losing it
                         G
Going off of the deep end
